QUEENS CIVICS SUPPORT EFFORT TO EASE PARKING PLIGHT

At a news conference called by Councilman John Liu, chair of the City Council's Transportation Committee, and former chairman of the Queens Civic Congress Transportation Committee (before his 2001 Council election), the following statement was issued by the Queens Civic Congress, a coalition of over 100 civic, community, condo, co-operative, homeowner and tenant organizations representing almost every community in the borough:

“The Queens Civic Congress applauds this legislation to help make New Yorkers more aware of, and less likely to get burned by, the maze of parking restrictions,” stated QCC President Sean M. Walsh. “Our coalition of over 100 civic, community, condo, co-operative, homeowner and tenant organizations representing almost every community in the borough urges the City Council to embrace and pass this initiative and calls on the Mayor and his administration to early indicate their support and his intention to sign Councilman Liu's bill into law. The Queens Civic Congress Platform advocates open government and this legislation clearly follows that path by mandating a city agency publish on line what it already publishes in print.”
